Our Guest Speaker is Ing. Mag. Karl-Heinz Krammer

It is no coincidence that the title “Out of the Crisis” refers to the famous book of Dr. Deming, first published in 1982. In this book, Deming describes his successful and proven management philosophy, based on the four pillars: systems and process thinking – constant learning- and practical philosophy in a social & business environment.

VALUES.CREATE.MEANING. In our search for “out of the crisis”, we should remember the timeless relevance of the legacy of this “Old Masters of Management”, William Deming and Peter Drucker, “Pioneer of modern Management” and Viktor Frankl, who’s “Theory of Meaning” was first introduced to the working world in 1977, phrased in its core sense, “leading through meaning”.

The speaker, Karl-Heinz Krammer, Austrian, refers to lifelong experience in international management assignments in the automotive supply industry. Together with his family he has been living for many years in Prague and still maintains home & office there. Over ten years he was CEO and majority owner of ATP-Automobiltechnik Prague s.r.o, a stamping plant for automotive. Karl-Heinz is founder and owner of Leankin Partner (www.leankin-partner.com) and member of IQX -Group, specialized in interim management assignments, focus on “special assignments”, restructuring, global project-management, I&R-support, (Innovation & Research) post-merger support, management & employee coaching and LEAN MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS, from concept-phase-in & role-out, workshops & teaching for top-management, staff & worker.
